Marcy Page

She retired from the NFB with plans to pursue her first love, directing and animating more personal work. Virgin Fandango is a project that she created, inspired by Portugal where she spends her summers with her husband, Normand Roger and with their inspiring partners in Casa de Vilar, Abi Feijó and Regina Pessoa, who contributed significantly to Virgin Fandango.

2026 Virgin Fandango

Marcy Page is an animator, animation director and producer who has pursued an interest in animated film for many decades. Born and raised in California, she free-lanced in animation with over a dozen Bay Area companies and taught animation courses at San Francisco State University and California College of Arts & Crafts in addition to pursuing her private animation craft. Her first independent, film Paradisia (1987) was awarded at over a dozen international festivals.
